Founded in early 2007, Fifth Floor Film (FFF) is a collaboration of two young Belgian filmmakers. FFF is committed to create short films with high production values on a budget by focus of purpose. With this manifesto we seek to take our place in the fledging Belgian movie industry as well as establish ourselves in the global internet-based moviemaking community. We are presently working on our first project: a psychological thriller/horror movie short that will function as our calling card for future projects. Production on this film started in spring 2007 and will wrap shooting in October 2008. FFF hopes to release the finished short in spring 2009. Click here to check out the projects page.
